Trembly's to celebrate 28th with sale, then a new store

Trembly's Jewelry, 208 S. Main St., is holding a double-barrel sale this weekend, running for five days... Thursday, Friday, Saturday, Monday and Tuesday.

The store will be celebrating its 28th anniversary and a moving sale--since the firm will move in about two weeks three doors south into its new enlarged, super-modern facility. Thousands of items will be on sale at discount prices during the next sale days.

And, for icing on the cake, says the owner, Marvin and his wife, Emmie, their oldest son, Randy, Belen High School graduate and former football star here, has just returned home from South Africa for a three week visit.

A double-page advertisement in today's News-Bulletin, announcing the feature items in the sale, has lots of meaning to "Emmie and myself", according to Trembly.

"Aug. 1, 1947, we opened for business at 107 N. Second St. in premises formerly occupied by Cora's Book and Gift Shop, and a few months later moved to premises now occupied by Accountant William O. Nelson at 604 Dalies. We moved to our present location at 208 South Main in 1951," Trembly recalled.

"Through the years the people of the Valley have given us their wholehearted support and we feel that in answer to their support we could design a store of more convenience for them. This we think we have done."

The owner said that in moving three doors south to the end of the building, at 214 South Main St., next to the Pizza Hut parking lot, he hoped that the new quarters will be not only something the store personnel can be proud of, but one of which the community also may be proud of.

"In preparing for the pending move around Aug. 15, we have found items that will be offered at special prices through the store," Trembly added. "So it is a time of celebration for us as
